

El Salvador Optical Cable Price List

Article Overview

Optical cable prices in El Salvador vary widely depending on type, length, and supplier, ranging from around $10 for short retail cables to several dollars per kilogram for bulk imports.

Retail Prices

For consumer or small-scale use, Ferretería EPA lists a 1.8-meter Toslink fiber optic cable for sale, which typically costs around $10–$15 depending on promotions and store location . Local distributors like Fointer provide a wide range of fiber optic cables and accessories, including kits, ODF boxes, and protective closures, with prices varying based on specifications and installation requirements .

Import and Wholesale Prices

El Salvador imports a significant volume of optical fiber cables. In 2024, the country imported 3,581,710 kg of optical fiber cables with a total value of $26.29 million, averaging roughly $7.34 per kilogram across all imports . Major suppliers include China, Mexico, India, and the United States, with China supplying the largest share at $16.03 million for 2,107,830 kg . Trade intelligence platforms like Veritrade and Volza provide detailed import pricing, showing that FOB and CIF prices for bulk optical cables can range from $5 to $15 per kilogram, depending on cable type, quality, and shipping terms . These prices are useful for businesses planning large-scale purchases or evaluating supplier options.
