

Nordic robotic arm and fiber optic cable equipment manufacturer

Article Overview

Key Nordic manufacturers include Yaskawa Nordic AB, Kollmorgen, Cognibotics for robotic arms, and Rosendahl Nextrom and NorthLab Photonics for fiber optic cable equipment.

Robotic Arm Manufacturers

Yaskawa Nordic AB is a leading manufacturer of industrial robots in the Nordics, offering solutions for welding, palletizing, painting, and material handling, with over a century of experience in automation technology . Kollmorgen specializes in advanced motion and automation solutions, including servo motors and drives that enhance robotic performance, and provides automation kits for AGVs and mobile robots . Cognibotics focuses on lightweight, high-precision robots for industrial automation and robotic machining, emphasizing speed, reach, and operational efficiency . Other notable companies include TDRi Robotics, Wemo Automation, and FlexLink, which provide specialized robotic solutions for production flow, packaging, and medical part manufacturing .

Fiber Optic Cable Equipment Manufacturers

Rosendahl Nextrom is a global supplier of production technologies for optical fibers and fiber optic cables. Their equipment covers optical glass making, fiber drawing, coating, ribbon making, proof testing, and complete fiber optic cable production. They provide both full production lines and individual process solutions, with integr...
