

Papua New Guinea Outdoor Distribution Box Manufacturer

Article Overview

Key manufacturers of outdoor distribution boxes in Papua New Guinea include Powa Industries, EK SOLAR, and suppliers of outdoor substations up to 400 kV.

Powa Industries

Powa Industries Limited, established in 1991 and based in Port Moresby, is a leading supplier of electrical parts and accessories in Papua New Guinea. They provide a range of electrical distribution products, including outdoor distribution boxes, which are tested and approved by PNG Power and comply with Australia/New Zealand standards. Powa Industries serves maintenance contractors, retailers, and private clients, ensuring high-quality imported and locally sourced electrical equipment .

EK SOLAR

EK SOLAR specializes in outdoor energy storage cabinets and has extensive experience in Pacific energy projects. Their cabinets are designed to withstand PNG's tropical climate and extreme weather, including cyclones, meeting AS/NZS 1170.2 wind loading standards for Category 3 cyclones. EK SOLAR's solutions are scalable, weather-resistant, and optimized for battery longevity, making them suitable for decentralized energy systems in rural and urban areas .
