

South African pigtail factory

Article Overview

Fowkes Bros and Network Online are key suppliers of pigtails in South Africa, offering a wide range of industrial and electrical pigtail products.

Fowkes Bros

Fowkes Bros is a major South African supplier of engineering and industrial products, including pigtails. They stock leading brands such as Gedore, Somta, Loctite, Good Hand, Spanjaard, Groz, Pferd, Rhodius, and Kennedy. Their branches are located in Cape Town, Paarl, George, Germiston, Rosslyn, and East London, making them accessible for both local and regional customers. They provide pigtails suitable for various industrial and manufacturing applications, including fasteners and connectors .

Network Online

Network Online offers a variety of pigtails, including colour-coded pigtail sets, which are commonly used in electrical and networking applications. Their online store allows customers to purchase pigtails in sets of 12 or more, catering to both small-scale and bulk requirements. This makes them a convenient option for businesses or individuals needing pigtails without visiting a physical store .

Finding Local Factories

While there is no specific mention of a dedicated "pigtail factory" in the web results, many South African suppliers source pigtails from local manufacturers or import the...
