

What are some Uruguayan manufacturers of electrical distribution boxes

Article Overview

Uruguay has a growing market for electrical distribution boxes, served by both local suppliers and international manufacturers catering to industrial, commercial, and residential projects.

Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

- Procuratio – Based in Uruguay, Procuratio specializes in planning, sourcing, and delivering electrical components, including distribution boxes. They maintain a network of top local and international suppliers, ensuring quality and timely delivery for industrial and construction projects in Uruguay .
- Zhejiang Liufang Cabinet Rack Co., Ltd. – Although a Chinese manufacturer, Liufang actively supplies Uruguay with high-performance octagon electrical enclosures, waterproof distribution boxes, and industrial control solutions. Their products are widely used in Uruguay's industrial parks, commercial buildings, and utility infrastructure, particularly in Montevideo, Punta del Este, and other industrial zones .
- B2B Market Suppliers – Platforms like Europages list multiple Uruguayan suppliers and manufacturers of electrical distribution box casings, including explosion-proof and weatherproof models. These suppliers cater to OEMs, installers, and distributors, providing both standard and custom-built enclosures .

Product Types and Applications

- Explosion-proof distribution boxes – Designed for hazardous environments in industrial facilities....
