Overview

White baseboards are a timeless choice. They work with nearly every style—minimalist, traditional, modern, or transitional. Benefits: Pro Tip: Choose a satin or semi-gloss finish for added durability and easier cleaning. A light-colored wall with a flat white. Those are baseboards, and they're the secret superheroes of home decor! Baseboards are like magic glue for your room's style. They create a handshake between walls and floors, tying everything together. For darker kitchens, consider using rich wood tones or painted baseboards that complement the cabinetry. Glossy finishes can help reflect light and make the space feel larger, while matte finishes. What Wall Color Goes With Decorators White Trim?

Decorator's White features cool undertones and shines brightest alongside cool wall colors like gray and blue, though it is less cool than Benjamin Moore's Chantilly Lace. A popular classic look is pairing white walls with white trim, and Benjamin.
